St. Francis of Paolo - April 2

Francis was born in 1416 in Calabria, Italy to a very poor but virtuous family. After spending a year with the Franciscans, he took up solitude. By age 20, two others joined to share his devout exercises. They lived in three cells and a chapel – this was the foundation of the Order of Minims. The first of several monasteries was built in 1454. King Louis XI of France had an inordinate fear of death, and tried everything to forestall the inevitable, including prayers and pilgrimages. Louis appealed to the Pope. Francis arrived at the French court in 1482. He told the King “the lives of kings and subjects are in the hands of God alone.” Over the next 4 months, St. Francis helped the King to prepare for death. He died peacefully in Francis’ arms on August 30, 1482. St. Francis shows that we should not be paralyzed by fear, but rather we should not put off doing good deeds, saying kind words, or forgiving those who hurt us. -JM

RCIA Scrutiny – 10:30 a.m. Mass

This Sunday, our RCIA Elect (Charles Karen, Tenisha Thomas-Hohausler, Laura Ball-Rosenberg, Michael Colon, and Isabella El-Amrani) will celebrate the 3rd and final RCIA Scrutiny during the 10:30am mass. The Gospel reading used this Sunday is from John 11:1-45 – The Raising of Lazarus. These Scrutinies are intended to help deliver the Elect from the power of sin and Satan, to protect them against temptation, and to give them strength in Christ, who is the Way, the Truth and the Life. These Rites of Scrutiny are meant to uncover, and then to heal, all that is weak, defective, or sinful in the Elects hearts and to bring out through repentance all that is upright, strong and good. These Scrutinies also remind the whole parish community of the need to reflect on their own sins and the need for God’s help. We ask you to always keep our Elect and our Candidates in your prayers.

Holy Week Movie:
The Passion of the Christ
Sunday, April 9 @ 8:15 p.m.
OLSS O’Mara Hall

Pastor's Letter

Dear Parish Family,

There's a growing excitement as we approach the end of Lent and the glorious liturgies of Holy Week, culminating in the Easter Vigil, where our Elect will be baptized and along with our candidates for Holy Communion and Confirmation. They will be fully initiated into the life of the Church. They will fully equipped to live the Christian life.

This Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, our Cluster 4 parishes are invited at 7:30-9PM to come and join us for the REVIVE mission, with Father Victor Hoagland, a Passionist Father and prayers and testimonies from our laity. Bring a friend.

On Palm Sunday Evening at 8:15 PM in O'Mara Hall, there will be a viewing of Mel Gibson's "The Passion of the Christ". If you have been fearful of watching this alone, come and join with us. It is graphic and stirring and yet a realistic presentation of what Jesus suffered for us all. For me it sets the tone for Holy Week.

Last Tuesday's reading from the Prophet Ezekiel gave us a vision of the Temple in Jerusalem and from its four gates flowed healing waters that became a river of life and all fruit bearing trees grew alongside the banks of this river. All this healing water was flowing from the Temple, the immediate place of God's presence among us. While reflecting on this, Father David in his homily gave a truthful teaching on the tactics, the reality and the strategy of the Devil. The Catholic Church teaches strongly that the Devil is real. We say for example in our Nicene Creed, "We believe in God the Father almighty the creator of all things visible and invisible." The devil may be invisible but he is real. Now we have Halloween images of a man in a red costume with pitchfork, horns and a hair tail. But that's not what the devil is. The Devil was vanquished at the moment of Jesus' death on the Cross, but he still has power and manifests himself in the four following ways. The Devil has so many subtle ways of leading us away from God.

First of all the word "devil" or "Diabolo" means to separate and divide. The devil's whole strategy is to divide and conquer, to separate and cast people apart from each other. Jesus on the other hand, came to unite us, to call us to communion and community. The Devil is the "Father of Lies" as is mentioned in the Bible. He is a deceiver, cunning and battles for the mind to believe and maintain the falsehoods.

Think of the ways the devil is battling for the minds of people today. "I don't believe in God anymore." "If there were a God, this would not have happened." "Oh, I don't have to go to Church every Sunday. I can stay home and read my bible". "The Church is all about money and rules, they are not about getting us to heaven." We see the devil's evidence in the breakdown of marriages, the rancor and anger expressed to one another, the lack of forgiveness and all the demons that go along with that, addictions, viewing pornography, alcoholism, gambling, drug addiction, extreme shopping and materialism, the cursing, the gossip, the unforgiveness, an over inflated ego, "It's all about celebrating me". There is no evidence of faith or humility.

The devil is also called "The Accuser". Always criticizing, finding blame, pointing the finger at others; all these are a part of the devil's strategies.

Finally the devil is called "A Murder and cause of all violence".

When interpreting the vision of Ezekiel and the River of Life flowing from the Temple, today the Temple is the Church, and the river of Life is the Sacraments. Each of the sacraments offer a healing remedy and the grace needed to live in the truth and grow in the ways of freedom and justice. While the world seems to losing its grasp on reality with regard to listening to God's word and recognizing His life giving remedy for sin and death, we're invited to come to a Cluster Mission to uncover, discover and recover.

I began this Lent asking the Lord to make this a meaningful and holy season. I know that every opportunity to grow and take nourishment is offered to us the Church and all the sacraments of forgiveness and reconciliation and healing. So if we find ourselves disillusioned, divided, argumentative, not at peace, confused and depressed, full of anger and accusation, harboring thoughts of violence and murder; then guess whose message you have been duped into.

The Church is not Burger King, "Have it your way". It's Christ's presence leading us into glory, freedom and wholeness.

So, if it is the Cluster Mission, the Stations of the Cross every Friday at 8PM, the All Night Adoration Vigil coming before God between 9PM and 9AM on Friday nights, 9AM Weekday Mass, Sunday Mass, Reconciliation Monday April 10th from 3-9PM when all priests will be getting ready for Easter, attending the Morning Prayer Tenebrae at 9AM Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday, or welcoming the RCIA candidates on Holy Saturday Night, all these events are pointing to one great reality - Jesus is Lord. Jesus conquered sin, suffering, and death and defeated the Devil.

On Easter Morning, we will renew our Baptismal Promises and profess our Faith in the Father Almighty who has created all things visible and invisible. And we will kick the devil out of this parish and welcome in the glorious reign of the Risen Christ Victorious!

That's my hope for the rest of Lent and Easter.

God Bless you,

Fr. Tom Devery

LENT 2016

Fast & Abstinence: The obligation of abstinence (refraining from eating meat) begins at the age of 14. The law of fasting (limiting oneself to one full meal and two lighter meals) obliges all between the ages of 19-59. The Fridays in Lent are obligatory days of abstinence from meat from 14 years onward.

Confession: The Sacrament of Reconciliation is held EVERY Saturday from 3:30 to 4 pm and from 5 to 5:30 pm. The last confessions before Easter will be on Good Friday, April 14th from 12 NOON to 2 PM.

Stations of the Cross: Stations are held every Friday at 8 PM during Lent.

Lenten Love Offering: This weekend we ask that you return your love offering boxes to the Church. Your contributions will help various service organizations, who assist the multiple needs of individuals and families. Thank you for your help in bringing hope to our sisters and brothers in need.
