ALL CONCERNED PARENTS OF STATEN ISLAND INVITED

Luncheon for parents to discuss concerns regarding the High School "opt-out" CATCH Program. This program gives schools the ability to dispense Plan B 'morning after' and birth control pills and shots to teens in high school without parental consent. We want to advocate for a parent-friendly, parent's rights "opt-in" sex education program. Parents need to have a voice in this discussion.

SCHOOL NEWS

OLSS BREAD OF LIFE FOOD DRIVE

"We ourselves feel that what we are doing is just a drop in an ocean. But the ocean would be less because of that missing drop."

Mother Theresa

Each year, OLSS School helps countless members of the Staten Island community through the generous donation of food to the Bread of Life Drive. A core team of students volunteered to plan and promote the drive. They served as excellent role models for the entire student body. Eighth grade student government members addressed the student body, while other student members carried out the duties needed for a successful drive.. They planned and delivered speeches and skits to stimulate support.. Boxes were assembled, donations were organized, packed, and delivered to members of the Bread of Life organization. Every volunteer gave their free time during lunch, recess, and before the start of classes to work on this event. In this time of economic uncertainty, OLSS contributed 75 boxes of food. On several occasions, our tiniest students in Pre-K, K, 1st, 2nd, and 3rd grades were seen carrying in bags of food almost as big as themselves! Every time one of the team members or faculty offered to get them help in carrying their donations these future leaders answered, "No, I've got it, thanks." The volunteers and their faculty coordinator, Mrs. Grimaldi, wish to extend a resounding "Thank You!" to all the students and families of OLSS School. A strong sense of community and the desire to make the world a better place are alive and evident through the many acts of kindness and generosity of our students and their families.
