HERO SAINTS OF THE WEEK
THE CARMELITE MARTYRS OF COMPIEGNE
(1794)– July 17

During the French Revolution, all religious communities were suppressed, except those teaching and nursing. The affected Carmelite nuns were forced to relinquish their religious habits, dress in secular clothes and abandon their convent. Nevertheless, 16 nuns were arrested and imprisoned. They were transported to Paris, where they then resumed their religious habits and openly recited prayers. They were convicted of making themselves enemies of the people by conspiring against its sovereign rule. On July 17, they were transported by open wagon to the place of execution, all the while singing the Salve Regina, the TeDeum and reciting the prayers for the dying. These Carmelite nuns were beatified in 1906, the first martyrs of the French terror. Their story has been recounted in the moving opera by Francois Poulenc “Dialogues of the Carmelites.” (JM)

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Amos 7:12-15

Amaziah (priest of Bethel) ordered Amos to leave Bethel and never prophesy there again. Amos replied that he had not been a prophet, but was a shepherd until he was called by God.

Second Reading: Ephesians 1:3-14

Paul exults God's immeasurable generosity as he recounts all the blessings that have been bestowed upon all God's people. We all became adopted children of God when we heard the message of truth Christ brought to us, and because of it, believed in him.

Gospel: Mark 6:7-13

Jesus gave the twelve disciples authority over unclean spirits and sent them out to preach and heal the sick. He advised them to bring nothing with them and to shake the dust from their feet of any town where they had not been welcomed. Jesus wanted them to understand what they would need to do in his place after his death.
