St. Germaine Cousin, Virgin- Saint of the Week

Born in 1579, her short life was filled with sickness and suffering. Her right hand was withered and paralyzed and she suffered from scrofula. As a child, she lost her mother, never knew affection from her father, mistreated by her stepmother and denied a real place of her own in the family home. She had to tend the local area sheep of Toulouse, France and was forbidden contact with her step- brothers and step- sisters. However, St. Germaine's pure soul was in constant touch with her maker. She reached heights of perfection. She constantly recited the rosary, attended daily mass and once walked over flood waters to reach church on time. She taught local children the faith and gave her own crusts of bread to the poor. She died at the age of 22 and half a century after her death, her body was found to be incorrupt.

Adult: What might a greater sense of compassion allow you to do for someone this week?

Child: When did you try to understand what another person was feeling?

Sponsors are needed for the education of the Seminarians as well as for the construction of a Junior Seminary. If you can help, please contact Rev.
