Father Rutilio Grande (1928-1977)

"It is a dangerous thing to be a Christian in our world." In El Salvador, the poor always suffer under the oppressive oligarchy. In the 1970's, the struggle for justice was joined by an awoken church. Priests and sisters came to identify with the causes of the poor, and thus risk the same fate as the poor...to disappear, to be tortured, to be captives and to be found dead. The first of them was Father Rutilio Grande. He was from a poor family and, at 17, entered the Jesuits. Up until the mid 1960's, he always considered himself unworthy but this changed after Vatican II. Instead of setting examples of perfection, he now felt it was time for examples of self-sacrifice and loving service. He committed to awakening in the poor, a sense of dignity and rights as God's children. He became known as a radical priest, an enemy of the system. His sermons became infamous among the elite. Pressure mounted to silence him. On March 12, while driving to El Paisnal, Fr. Grande's van was sprayed with gunfire – he was killed instantly. (JM)

A MESSAGE FROM FR. TOM

Dear Parish Family,

A Belated Happy Saint Patrick's Day and a Blessed Saint Joseph's Day. Usually these days signal the beginning of spring and the end of winter. We certainly had an icy cold winter and we welcome the coming warmth. My parents were born in Ireland and although I have been there several times, I always thank God that I am an American. When I realize the sacrifices they made to leave a completely different lifestyle and come to a new world and raise a family with little resources but they were rich in faith, I am in awe how God has blessed us. It's that intergenerational faith that has sustained us through the years. As I watch the parade and the festivities of these days I think of what we inherited in this great land of opportunity. It's all here if we wish to work and sacrifice hard for success in life.

It's in this spirit that I am writing to you to please contribute to the 2015 Cardinal's Appeal. Although our goal is high, we have deep faith responsibility to support those in our church that are less fortunate than ourselves. Our contribution to the Cardinal's Appeal meets the needs of our retired priests and sisters, the future training of priests in our seminary system, the Catholic System of the Archdiocese of New York and the total outreach of our Catholic Charity system as well as directly helping parishes that struggling just to survive. We have 6000 families on our register and I am proud of the 185 families that have already made their pledge. It doesn't have to be a huge amount. But in this Lenten season we are invited to give sacrificially. Think for a moment how blessed we are in this moment in history to have the freedom to practice our faith. It wasn't always the case, and as we see in the Near East, many Catholics are now martyrs or on the brink of martyrdom given the anti-Christian sentiment of radicals. If you haven't made your pledge or contribution, please do so.

I want to sincerely thank all our parishioners who have come to the Sacrament of Reconciliation during this Lenten season. May the Lord give you all a season of refreshment and peace. And for all who are still sitting on the fence, just know that many people of our parish are now praying for your return to the grace of the Lord.

On Monday of Holy Week, March 30th from 3PM to 9PM there will be Archdiocesan wide Day of Reconciliation. Every priest in the 5 neighboring dioceses will be in church awaiting to give absolution. So I want to warmly welcome you to the Sacrament of Confession and the new life of Grace.

During this week, actually March 18-23, I will be joining 9 men from Staten Island to go on a missionary trip to work alongside the Missionaries of the Poor in Kingston, Jamaica. I did this last year and it was life changing. Brother Isaiah said to us as we entered the compound called "The Lord's Place". Remember as you feed, wash, shave and serve the poor, it Christ receiving Christ, don't forget to look into their eyes. I did, and that's why I'm returning. I saw the philanthropy of the poor. Be assured of my prayers while I am gone.

I want to honor Father Basil Akut and the men of Cursillo #209 who made the four day retreat at Mount Alvernia Retreat House, run by the Franciscan Fathers in Wappingers Falls. What a joy filled and inspiring time that retreat was, may it bear abundant fruit. If you ever want to make the Cursillo de Cristiandad Retreat "A Little Course in Christianity" see either myself or Father Basil.

This past weekend "A Ray of Hope" gave two presentations for the Sacrament of Confirmation as their retreat. It was held for two hours at Our Lady Queen of Peace Church, in New Dorp and Saint Joseph's and Saint Thomas in Pleasant Plains. Three parish classes of confirmandi attended this presentation and it was inspirational. I am grateful to the Salesian Fathers for sponsoring "A Ray of Hope".

Please keep in your prayers the happy repose of the soul of Catherine "Kitty" Manetta, the mother of our Sacristan, John Manetta. It was wonderful that Msgr. Jeff Conway, Father Joseph Mc Lafferty, Father James Hauver, Monsignor Fred Berardi and Monsignor Vincent Bartley joined me in concelebrating her funeral Mass. May she rest in peace and may the Manetta Family feel the graces of consolation during these days.

God love you all,
Father Tom Devery

RCIA Scrutiny – Fifth Sunday of Lent

This Sunday, our RCIA Elect (Nicholas Tolan and Jonathan Lanning) will celebrate the 3rd and final RCIA Scrutiny during the 10:30am mass. The Gospel reading used this Sunday is from John 11:1-45 – The Raising of Lazarus. These Scrutinies are intended to help deliver the Elect from the power of sin and Satan, to protect them against temptation, and to give them strength in Christ, who is the Way, the Truth and the Life. These Rites of Scrutiny are meant to uncover, and then to heal, all that is weak, defective, or sinful in the Elects hearts and to bring out through repentance all that is upright, strong and good. These Scrutinies also remind the whole parish community of the need to reflect on their own sins and the need for God's help. We ask you to always keep our Elect and our Candidates in your prayers.
