Blessed Seraphina (Fina), Virgin - March 12

Serafina was born in the 13th century in Tuscany to poor parents. Despite poverty, she always saved half her food for the poor. At home she was a recluse; sewing, spinning and spending most nights in prayer. At a young age, after her father's death, Seraphina was stricken with a painful paralysis-to be more Christ-like, she asked to be placed on a plank where she was unable to move or turn. She often prayed, "It is not my wounds but yours, O Christ, that hurt me." Although not a nun, she followed the Benedictine way of life. After her mother's death, few wanted to help her because of the repulsive sores on her body. She prayed to St. Gregory the Great, who also suffered from disease. It is believed that Gregory revealed the day of her death in a vision. She died March 12, 1253. Many miracles were reported through her intercession. (JM)

Rite of Scrutiny This Sunday, our RCIA Elect (Afshin Shirazi) will celebrate the 2nd of 3 RCIA Scrutinies during the 10:30am mass. These rites are intended to help deliver the Elect from the power of sin and Satan, to protect them against temptation, & to give them strength in Christ, who is the Way, the Truth and the Life. These Rites of Scrutiny are meant to uncover, & then to heal, all that is weak, defective, or sinful in the Elects hearts and to bring out through repentance all that is upright, strong and good. These Scrutinies also remind the whole parish community of the need to reflect on their own sins and the need for God's help. We ask you to always keep our Elect and our Candidates in your prayers.

A MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parish Family,

Father Eugene Fulton is the director of Trinity Retreat House in Larchmont, New York. He recently wrote the following understanding about mercy in an invitation for priest retreats:

"Mercy is the form love takes when it encounters those in need. It is first of all a form of love because it wants what is good for the one who is loved. Saint Thomas Aquinas points out that mercy is a God-like virtue, because it involves the strong showing pity to the weak. Particularly for the priest, mercy restores the essence of who a person is called to be. This is the gift of mercy – and it is rooted in profound respect of the other. God knows us as He intends us to be; His sons and daughters – His friends. When He knows us as sinners, and unable to secure our own deliverance from sins – He knows us as needing His mercy. His mercy reflects God's true judgment on us, as not being His undeserving poor, but His own beloved children. May your retreat be filled with powerful graces and every happiness, peace and blessings."
Quoting Pope Francis, "At times we are called to gaze even more attentively on mercy so that we may become a more effective sign of the Father's action in our lives".

During this past week on Tuesday, Pope Francis was preaching on the topic of Jesus' answer to the question, "How many times should I forgive, seven times?" And Jesus said "No, not seven times but seventy times seven times."

"Lent is a privileged time to prepare our hearts to receive God's forgiveness, and to show it to others, by forgetting their faults." According to Vatican Radio, Pope Francis stressed this during his daily morning Mass, as he discussed God's infinite capacity to forgive as perfection of his nature. Francis also pointed out how greatly this contrasts with the inability of fallen human nature to admit our own frailty. The Jesuit Pope drew inspiration from today's readings from the Gospel of Matthew in which Saint Peter asks Jesus how many times are we to forgive a brother who has sinned against us, and the Lord responds, seventy-seven times, which represents 'always'.

"Forgiving," the Pope stressed, "means opening our hearts so that God's mercy might come and forgive us, for, we all have need of pardon, need to ask for forgiveness." Stressing that we are to trust in God's mercy and goodness, Francis noted, "When God forgives, his forgiveness is so great that it is as through God forgets."

The Argentine Pontiff said this is "quite the opposite" of what we do, as 'we chatter': 'But so-and-so did such-and-such.' He stressed how much history we have of this and noted we do this because we don't have merciful hearts. Pope Francis invited those present to have mercy on others, so they shall feel God's mercy, who, when He forgives, He also forgets.

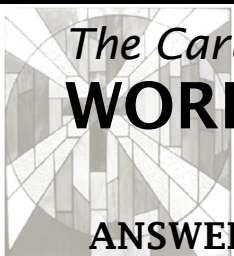

"In the 'Our Father'," the Pope recalled, "we pray: 'forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors.' It is an equation: the two sides go together. If you are able to forgive, how will God forgive you? He wants to forgive you, but He will not if you have closed hearts, where mercy cannot enter."

"But Father, if forgive, but I cannot forget the bad turn that so-and-so did to me..." Well, ask the Lord to help you forget." Francis also criticized when we people say, "I forgive you, but mean, "You'll pay me later". "This, never!" Francis said, "Forgive as the Lord forgives – to the utmost." The Holy Father reminded those gathered that heartfelt pardon, given and received, is always an act of Divine mercy.

Pope Francis concluded, saying "May Lent prepare our hearts to receive God's forgiveness – but let us receive it and then do the same with others: forgive heartily."

May we heed these words as we continue our Lenten journey,

Father Tom Devery

Visit Senator Andrew Lanza's Office to Receive Assistance with Heat & Energy Bills

Staten Island residents may qualify to receive assistance with their heat & energy bills this winter through the HEAP program. The Home Energy Assistance Program (HEAP) is a federally funded program that issues heating benefits to supplement a household's annual energy costs. HEAP also offers an emergency benefit for households in a heat-related energy emergency. Senator Lanza's district office, which is located in Eltingville at 3845 Richmond Avenue, Suite 2A, will serve as an intake office for the HEAP program. A representative will be available to assist you in the completion and processing of your application. There will be a representative from HEAP in the office every Thursday from 9am - 3pm until the program ceases. The Neighborhood Heating Fund (Heartshare) was developed to help low-income families and individuals with elevated heating bills meet their monthly payments.
