St. Eric of Sweden – May 18

In 1150, Eric was recognized as king in Sweden and was responsible for the spread of Christianity and in Old Uppsala built the first large Church in the country. After he defeated the Finns, who were raiding his lands, he asked St. Henry Bishop to evangelize Finland. Some of Eric's nobles opposed the Faith and conspired against him with Magnus, the son of the king of Denmark. The Danish army marched on Sweden, and as Eric went to meet them, the conspirators pulled Eric down from his horse and cut off his head. Until the Protestant Reformation, St. Eric was regarded as the principal Patron of Sweden.

SCHOOL NEWS

An OLSS Message To All Moms

Motherhood is a state of being that one can't truly understand unless they have been there. It is a state of unconditional love in which joy, enthusiasm, and concern are an integral part. No awards or achievements could surpass motherhood. The word "mom" is a password to our hearts.

Practices, games, carpools, homework, meetings, household chores, family obligations, and careers very often make it difficult to truly treasure those children who voice that special word to our hearts. On this Mother's Day and on those to come always remember:

The work will wait while you show the child the rainbow, but the rainbow won't wait while you do the work. To all moms, we hope you have a very special Mother's Day. May you share many rainbows with your children. May all mothers both living and deceased continue to help us understand the meaning of unconditional love.
