Legion of Mary at OLSS

Monday, May 8 at 7:30 pm

The Legion of Mary is a group of lay people who strive to achieve a greater love for Jesus and Mary through prayer then bring the fruit of that prayer to others by doing service through assignments of Apostolic work. The newly forming Legion of Mary group in this parish will receive their duties from the Pastor, Father Tom Devery. The Legion is a perfect way of fulfilling our Baptismal obligation of loving God and spreading His Gospel message to our brothers and sisters, under the guidance of Our Blessed Mother Mary. If you are looking for a wonderful spiritual experience of charity in action, why not give the Legion of Mary a try? We are excited to announce that our first meeting will be on Monday, May 8th at 7:30pm in the Damato meeting room in the Athletic Center. Everyone is welcome: the only requirements are a love of the Blessed Virgin Mary, her Church and a desire to put your wonderful faith into practical action.

Pastor's Letter

Dear Parish Family,

During this Easter Season, we are reminded of how the Risen Christ lives in His people. Last week, a dear friend, Sister Antonia Maguire, FMSC went home to God after more than 43 years as prison chaplain at Taconic State Prison and the women's prison at Bedford Hill. She influenced my ministry to the incarcerated in 1978. Here is a written tribute by her closest friend, Sister Laura Morgan, FMSC.

"Since 1977, Sister Antonia has preached the Gospel loudly with her actions behind bars: in segregated units, in solitary cells, in keep-locked caves, and in prison nurseries. She has brought Jesus to secured hospital wards, waiting rooms, morgues, and funeral parlors. Her presence at baptisms, weddings, and family reunions reminds many that God is alive and working in the lives of all people who thirst for Him. She is the harbinger of His Good News when spirits are low and fears are oppressing, when children are lost in a careless foster parent system, when loved ones are fighting for life and others have gone home to God, when AIDS become a reality in the depths of one's own existence and when injustice prevails and common respect is much too hard to find. Sister Antonia, follower of Saint Francis, is sometimes the only instrument of peace when hatred grows and festers and sneaks through the razor-wired walls of a secured state prison. She stands tall and powerful as she picks up the shattered pieces of fractured lives, lives scarred by the hatred of an abusive spouse, violent parents, punitive teachers, scheming co-workers, selfish drug dealers, and unfit friends. It is here that her gentle smile, her warm embrace, and her closeness with the One who loves her... sows love.

Incarcerated men and women are hurt, they are injured by those who have loved them, by a harsh and selfish society that has taken them for granted, by acquaintances that have led them astray and abandoned them behind secure walls. They have been hurt by peoples' indifference, greed, anger and lust. They have been raped of their dignity and stripped even of their name. They are in pain. Compassion and caring and inner strength teach these "numbered" men and women that forgiveness is real and indeed possible in the midst of deep pain. One who has known the joy of being forgiven ... sows forgiveness, with joy.

Broken people forget how to have faith. Haunting memories of abuse and rape and fighting and drunkenness and anger and ugliness overtake the hidden sparks of light which are burrowed in one's heart. Doubt prevails... there is no light, there is no hope, there is no chance to change and become anything more than a locked up criminal. It is the compliment, the pat on the back, the genuine smile and the warm safe hug, the extra mile that Sister Antonia takes that leads the doubting and despairing soul to stop and recognize a spark of hope within a tomb of darkness. The presence that never lets the darkness overtake one's life... sows light.

Prison is the womb of sadness, the place where joy is left on the doorstep and happiness is barricaded away for a long, long time. When the days are gloomy and the only news is bad, when the letters aren't written and the visits never happen, when loved ones die, and children become ill, when caring becomes obsolete and life loses its meaning... there is sadness, there is hopelessness, there is despair. And when an inmate feels so far down that there is nowhere else to go, it is the little bits of "perfect joy" that brings a real Franciscan presence to God's truly injured people. The affirmation that comes from "Happy Birthday" or "Your hair looks nice today"; from a simple "thank you" for a deed so often gone unnoticed, from a special prayer for a pressing need, and mostly, from a woman, generous, caring, and devoted; from a follower of Francis who always puts herself last and God's chosen ones first, a real companion of the Father, working from a wheelchair, spreading little bits of sunshine all along a shaded path...sowing joy.

It is a rare gift in this world to find someone who genuinely understands people especially when they feel they are so complex and confused that no one could ever look beyond the mess they feel they have made of themselves and love them. In a correctional environment, inmates, numbered people, feel alone and misunderstood. In such an atmosphere, no one fights for you, only with you. Solitude is safety, distance provides protection, and isolation fosters peace. Sister Antonia's affirming presence draws women to trust her, to open their hearts and share their deepest feelings with her and to wholeheartedly believe that she unconditionally cares for them. She respects who they are, what their stories tell, where they've been, and she gently leads them to believe in the beauty she sees within them. She sees the sculpture hidden in the stone of rejection and by her actions and care she becomes the instrument releasing the beauty that has always dwelt within... she understands.

Each week, after we have celebrated the Liturgy, Sister Antonia reminds the women that there are so many hurting people behind prison walls. She missions them to the cell blocks with the mandate to BE KIND TO EACH OTHER. She never tells them to out and preach, convert, teach or admonish... she instructs them to be who they have become: transformed, loving, vibrant, caring children of a Father who created them to be who they have become. As builders of God's kingdom, they obey the words of our great Saint Francis of Assisi and "show themselves joyfully in the Lord, cheerful, and suitably gracious" (Rule of Francis 1221).

To many friends of Sister Antonia Maguire, FMSC, we are mostly thankful to God for sharing her with them. She wasn't sure she would ever get involved in this ministry. It was toss of the coin. After 66 years a religious and 43 years in prison, God won the toss."

– Sister Laura Morgan, Provincial of the Peekskill Franciscans.

A Blessed Easter Season,

Fr. Tom Devery

OLSS SCHOOL NEWS

• Earth Day activities set the stage for the OLSS Pre-K students to share a wonderful learning experience with the students of the seventh grades. The 7th grade students guided their young colleagues through a learning experience that blended multiple media and techniques, which were geared to support students' understanding of plants, seeds, and the growth cycle of plants. At OLSS School, the students grow in their understanding of stewardship of the Earth from a very young age. Based on the enthusiasm on the part of all the students during this activity we can be confident that our planet and our future will be in good hands!

• Our annual Plant Sale is Thursday, May 11 for grades K-8 and on Friday, May 12 for Pre-K-4.

• The Parents' Association is sponsoring Movie Night on Friday, May 12. They will be showing a family friendly movie (TBA) on the big screen, under the stars! This is a fair share event and for OLSS families only.

• Ride the wave to success! Registration for Our Lady Star of the Sea School is ongoing for grades PreK3-7. Please contact the school office at 718-984-5750 to schedule a tour or for more information.

Special Collection for the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception Weekend of May 13 & 14

The Office of the Cardinal
1011 First Avenue
New York, NY 10022

Dear friends in the Lord:

The completion of the Trinity Dome, in preparation for the one hundredth anniversary of the placing of the foundation stone of the National Shrine in 2020, is a monumental undertaking for which the bishops of the United States have approved a special one-time collection to take place on this Mother's Day.

The Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception is the patronal church of our nation, dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary under her title of the Immaculate Conception. This great Marian shrine exists today because of the generosity of American Catholics, the prayers of the faithful, and the hard work of the artisans and laborers who began building it nearly one hundred years ago. Mary's Shrine, also known as America's Catholic Church, is an authentic reflection of the diversity of the cultures and ethnicities of the United States and the unity and universality of the Catholic Church as evidenced in the more than eighty chapels and oratories dedicated to Our Blessed Mother.

This one-time national collection for the Trinity Dome offers all of us an opportunity to leave a lasting legacy by honoring our Catholic heritage and entrusting ourselves and our families to the Mother of God.

Please be as generous as you can.

With prayerful best wishes for a blessed Easter season, I am,

Faithfully in Christ,

Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan
Archbishop of New York

OLSS Baptism Preparation Policy

Please reference the front bulletin cover for details on the Baptism Preparation Policy. All parish families preparing for the Baptism of their child must attend the OLSS Baptismal Class. Please contact the Rectory Mon-Fri 9-4:30 to obtain a Baptism Registration Packet.

Baptismal Class & Ceremony Dates

May 14 & 28, June 11 & 25

PLEASE NOTE: Baptism Classes take place at 12 Noon in the Damato Meeting Room of the Athletic Center. Baptism Ceremonies take place at 2:15 PM in the Church. PLEASE NOTE: Beginning July 2, 2017, Baptism Ceremonies will take place EVERY Sunday at 2 pm. Classes will remain the 2nd and 4th Sunday of the Month at 12 Noon.

Sponsor Certificates

Certificates attesting to the fact that an OLSS parishioner is a practicing Catholic are often required when they are asked to sponsor someone at the time of Baptism or Confirmation. These certificates may be obtained only AFTER the Masses on Saturday evening or Sunday. The PERSON REQUIRING THE CERTIFICATE MUST see the priest AFTER ATTENDING THE MASS to request one.
