HERO/SAINT OF THE WEEK

May 22 – St. Rita of Cascia. Born in Spoleto Italy in 1381, at an early age, she wanted to enter a convent; instead her parents arranged a marriage. Her husband often mistreated her and he taught their children his own evil ways. After 20 years of marriage, her husband was stabbed by his enemies. Before his death, he repented because Rita prayed for him. Shortly afterwards, her two sons also died and Rita entered the Augustinian convent and began a life of obedience and great charity. She had a great devotion to Christ's Passion. As she prayed, "Please let me suffer like you, Divine Savior," suddenly one of the thorns from the crucifix struck her on the forehead. It left a deep wound which never healed and caused her much suffering for the rest of her life. St. Rita is known as Patroness of Impossible Cases and also of desperate marital situations. (JM)
