Sts. Nathalia, Aurelius, Liliosa, Felix & George Martyrs, July 27

During the 8th Century, the Muslims ruled Cordova, Spain and persecuted Christians. Nathalia and Aurelius were converted Muslims. After setting aside money for their daughter's future, they gave the rest of their possessions to the poor and practiced penances and devotion. Their example inspired Felix and his wife Liliosa to openly practice their faith by visiting Christians in prison. They were arrested with a beggar named George, who belonged to the St. Sabar monastery. They were all condemned to death. The first four for giving up the Muslim religion and George for insulting Mohammed. -JM
