SAINT OF THE WEEK – ST. JOSEPH COTTOLENGO

Joseph was born in Turin, Italy and in 1827, opened a little house dedicated to the sick and the derelict. Known as the Little House of Divine Providence, it developed with asylums, orphanages, hospitals and schools. St. Joseph depended solely on alms to meet the large daily expenses. The saint kept no accounting books and made no investments, trusting completely in Divine Providence. St. Joseph was a man of assiduous prayer, which helped him take care of a great many people. He died in 1842 and was canonized a saint in 1934. (JM)

Sponsors are needed for the education of the Seminarians as well as for the construction of a Junior Seminary. If you can help, please contact Rev. Dr. Thomas George, Director of MSFX at the Rectory (718) 984-0593 up until June 10th.

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS

HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ
June 2, 2013

“‘Why do you not give them something to eat yourselves?’ They replied, ‘We have nothing but five loaves and two fishes. Or shall we ourselves go and buy food for all these people?’... Then taking the five loaves and two fishes, Jesus raised his eyes to heaven, pronounced a blessing over them, broke them and gave them to the disciples to distribute to the crowd. They all ate until they had enough.”

Although we gather at the Lord's Table weekly, once each year we are reminded of what makes us who we are, a Eucharistic people. The feeding of the crowd of five thousand was an extraordinary feat. Using the elements of five loaves and two fish, we are reminded of the widow feeding Elijah even though she had little oil in her jug and flour in her jar. There was enough for them for an entire year. The description of what Jesus did, surely is connected with our Sunday Eucharist.

The gift of the Eucharist allows us to have oneness with Christ and one another as members of His church. The sacrament is the sign of unity and bond of charity. It is not to be taken for granted, but appreciated as the source of life for us all. Jesus could do so much seemingly with little resources.

Following the super storm Sandy thousands rallied to feed, clothe, house and comfort thousands with what little they had. So much good could surface from a harsh experience. Victims of the storm were concerned for the well being of others; even as they suffered from the disaster they shared their five and two.

We too are called to distribute the goodness of Jesus to others. What are your five and two? What can you give to the Lord and His people?
