A Letter from the Pastor

Dear Parish Family,

Welcome to Super Bowl Sunday. It's the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord in the Temple. On Monday we will have the blessing of throats after the 9 am Mass and then the priests will visit all the children in the school to bless their throats. On Wednesday, February 5, we celebrate the Feast of Saint Agatha, the patron saint of nurses and all women suffering from breast cancer. We will have medals and prayer cards distributed after the 9 am Mass.

I am proud of our students this past week. Catholic Schools Week was a wonderful success. Also, I am proud of our parish for their support of the Blood Drive. We were hoping for 45 pints and we donated 49 pints. God bless all who participated.

On January 15, I went to visit Sister Virginia Russo, O. Carm. She is an amazing Carmelite Sister of the Aged and Infirm. Last October she celebrated her 95th birthday and is now a resident in the Mary Manning Walsh Home. There are people in your life I will never forget. On Oct 6, 1992 and June 25, 2013 she was beside the bed of the father and then my mother at the moment of their death. She has been a remarkable presence for years at the Carmel Richmond Nursing Home, when my parents became very frail. Recently, I took for the first time the Q train, or the new 2nd Avenue Subway. Ironically, it left me off at 72nd Street and diagonally across the street from the station entrance is 315 East 72nd Street, where I worked as a summer vacation relief doorman. It was more than a walk down memory lane. After my visit, I attended the 100th Birthday Mass for John Cardinal O'Connor. Bishop Edmund Whalen preached an inspiring homily and focused his remarks about Cardinal O'Connor's motto, "There can be no love without justice." A moment that inspired Cardinal O'Connor to found the Sisters of Life came when he visited the concentration camp at Auschwitz. He literally reached into the oven and felt the ashes of all the millions who died in that terrible holocaust. Christian, Jew, Muslim, outcasts; and he thought; "how could human beings be so cruel to each other?" He founded the Sisters of Life and had as their main purpose, not only the vows of poverty, chastity and obedience but also the 4th vow, to protect and promote the sacredness of all human life from natural birth to natural death. Today, there are over 100 Sisters of Life in New York, Denver, Philadelphia, and Washington, DC. After Mother Agnes Donovan, SV, the superior gave her reflection on Cardinal O'Connor, there was a holy hour in the Cathedral and I was deeply moved by the presence of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament and then took the subway, ferry and train home.

Here's a wonderful poem that was sent to me about "The Train of Life".

Life is like a journey on a train ... With its stations... With changes of routes... And with the accidents... At birth, we board the train and meet our parents, and we believe that they will always travel on our side. However, at some station our parents will step down from the train, leaving us on this journey alone.

As time goes by, other people will board the train and they will be significant, i.e. our siblings, friends, children, and even the love of our life. Many will step down and leave a permanent vacuum. Others will go so unnoticed that we don't realize that they vacated their seats! Which is very sad when you think about it! This train ride will be full of joy, sorrow, fantasy, expectations, hellos, goodbyes, and farewells. Success consists of having a good relationship with all the passengers... requiring that we give the best of ourselves. The mystery to everything is: We do not know at which station we ourselves will step down. So, we must live in the best way – love, forgive, and offer the best of who we are. It is important to do this; because, when the time comes for us to step down and leave our seat empty – we should leave behind beautiful memories for those who will continue to travel on the train of life. I wish you a joyful journey this year on the train of life. Recap success and give lots of love. More importantly give thanks for the journey! Lastly, I thank you for being one of the passengers on my train.

Next weekend, Father Henry Lozano, Missionary of the Poor, will be visiting Our Lady Star of the Sea. He lives in Kingston, Jamaica and works with the brothers in serving the homeless and the poor in their shelters. Another brother will be accompanying him, and they will be accepting donations after all of the Masses. If you recall, we hosted a concert of music back in 2018 and I am delighted to welcome them to our parish again. There was a 7.7 magnitude earthquake this past week off the coast of Jamaica and they are dealing with aftershocks. Let us pray for them and also the people infected with the corona virus throughout the world.

May the Lord bless on all your travels this week,

Father Tom Devery

Altar Serving at OLSS

"I GO UNTO THE ALTAR OF GOD,

THE GOD THAT GIVES JOY TO MY YOUTH" Psalm 43.

The Altar Server Ministry at OLSS allows you to serve your parish. When you serve at the altar, you serve the community and you show commitment to church and God. Young men and women from First Holy Communion through 12th grade may participate in this ministry. This ministry is ancient in the church and is derived from the Acolyte sub order.

On August 12, 2001, Pope John Paul II spoke to more than two thousand young men and women altar servers gathered in Rome. He believed as an Altar Server, you will be more than helpers. "...you are servers of Jesus Christ...you, altar servers, are called in particular to be young friends of Jesus..."

God does not call strangers. He calls friends. If he is calling you to serve, please answer by contacting Deacon James & Maria Quadriano @ 917-417-5728.

OLSS Baby Bin

The OLSS Pro-Life Committee has set up a Baby Bin in the lobby at the main entrance of the church to accept donations of diapers, wipes and other essentials for newborns. Items collected will be sent to the Cross Road Foundation and the Good Counsel Home both on Staten Island. Please check the bin for a list of the items that can be accepted. Disposable diapers and wipes are especially needed. God bless you for your generosity in supporting the Gospel of Life.
