A Letter from the Pastor

Dear Parish Family,

It was very early in the morning. I was crossing over the Goethals Bridge when the EI Al 747 flew directly overhead. Seated on the plane were the 13 seminarians and three priests returning from their pilgrimage to the Holy Land. I was driving to collect Carmine Caruso after his 12-hour flight. He was exhausted but thrilled to be back home. If he never saw humus again, he wouldn't miss it. It was offered at nearly every meal while he was there. After a long sleep to ward off jet lag, Carmine spoke at the next morning Mass about his experience. It seems that the moment of grace that touched him the most was his visit to Jerusalem and the Church of the Holy Sepulchre. The tour guide, he said, was excellent. His name is Fabrizzio and he is from Spoleto, Italy; a town not far from Assisi. But just to stand in the very spot where Jesus rose from the dead was indescribable. Words can't express what a sense of awe and victory and peace and incredible joy this was for his faith. I agreed with Carmine, that every time I read or proclaim the Gospels, my mind immediately goes back to the scene where it took place.

One of the insights that delighted the seminarians was along the shore of the Sea of Galilee at the shrine dedicated to the Jesus's words, "Duc Et Altum", translated that means "put out into deeper waters." Fabrizzio said that we owe a great deal of gratitude to the Franciscan Order, who worked hard to find the shrines of all the special places where Jesus and the Holy Family and the apostles were. It seemed that for years it was all buried over and forgotten due to the Sultans rule of then Palestine. Then he related that experience to our faith. How do we bury over all the learning and training we have received in the faith with other knowledge and information and study and technology of our age. We bury over our faith and act as if we once knew Jesus and now we forget his core teachings and values. That's a wonderful question to ponder as we look as our lives this winter season.

We can be so absorbed with the latest sporting event, news from Washington, Iran or even the harsh reality of Anti-Semitic events in our city. We can be so outraged at violence in all its form and get so upset, that we become paranoid, judgmental and filled with hostility and worry. How do we uncover Jesus and put our trust and faith in him.

I am very aware these days that with an attitude of "an eye for an eye and tooth for a tooth," revenge and reprisals can be so much in the forefront of our consciousness that we don't take the time to pray, to turn our angry feelings over to the Lord. We need to intercede for our military deployed overseas and for a spirit of diplomacy and peacemaking. We certainly don't need another war.

In the book "Through the Year with Fulton Sheen", the parable from January 13 is a poignant reflection. Archbishop Sheen writes:

When I first went to Europe to study as a young priest, I lived in a boarding house, which belonged to a certain woman, whom we will call Madame Citroff. I was there about a week when she came to me and told me the tragic story of her family. After her marriage, her husband left her. A daughter that was born to them became immoral on the streets of Paris. Then, Madame Citroff pulled out her pocket a small vial of poison. She said, 'I do not believe in God. Sometimes the thought comes to me that there is a God, an in case there is one, I curse him. So, I've decided simply, because life has no meaning and is absurd, to do away with it. I intend to take this tonight. Can you do anything for me?'

'Well,' I said, 'I can't if you're going to take that stuff.' So, I asked her to postpone her suicide for nine days. I think it's the only case on record of a woman postponing her suicide for nine days. Well, I never prayed before in my life as I prayed for that woman. On the ninth day, the good Lord gave her great grace. Some years later, on my way to Lourdes, I stopped off at a city where I enjoyed the hospitality of the Monsieur and Madame and Mademoiselle Citroff, and I said to the village priest, 'Are the Citroff's good Catholics?' He replied, 'It's wonderful when people keep the faith all during their lives.' He didn't know the story.

May the Lord give you His Peace.

Father Tom Devery

Altar Serving at OLSS

"I GO UNTO THE ALTAR OF GOD,

THE GOD THAT GIVES JOY TO MY YOUTH" Psalm 43.

The Altar Server Ministry at OLSS allows you to serve your parish. When you serve at the altar, you serve the community and you show commitment to church and God. Young men and women from First Holy Communion through 12th grade may participate in this ministry. This ministry is ancient in the church and is derived from the Acolyte sub order.

On August 12, 2001, Pope John Paul II spoke to more than two thousand young men and women altar servers gathered in Rome. He believed as an Altar Server, you will be more than helpers. "...you are servers of Jesus Christ...you, altar servers, are called in particular to be young friends of Jesus..."

God does not call strangers. He calls friends. If he is calling you to serve, please answer by contacting Deacon James & Maria Quadrino @ 917-417-5728.
