Altar Serving at OLSS

"I GO UNTO THE ALTAR OF GOD,

THE GOD THAT GIVES JOY TO MY YOUTH" Psalm 43.

The Altar Server Ministry at OLSS allows you to serve your parish. When you serve at the altar, you serve the community and you show commitment to church and God. Young men and women from First Holy Communion through 12th grade may participate in this ministry. This ministry is ancient in the church and is derived from the Acolyte sub order.

On August 12, 2001, Pope John Paul II spoke to more than two thousand young men and women altar servers gathered in Rome. He believed as an Altar Server, you will be more than helpers. "...you are servers of Jesus Christ...you, altar servers, are called in particular to be young friends of Jesus..."

God does not call strangers. He calls friends. If he is calling you to serve, please answer by contacting Deacon James & Maria Quadrino @ 917-417-5728.

ADNY Announcement on Child Protection

Anyone who needs to report an alleged incident of sexual abuse of a minor by a priest, deacon, religious or lay person serving in the Archdiocese of New York is asked to contact Sr. Eileen Clifford, O.P. at 212-371-1000 x2949. She may be reached via email at victimsassistance@archny.org. Information can also be found on the Archdiocesan website, www.archny.org. In keeping with the Archdiocesan policy regarding sexual abuse of minors, this information is provided to ensure that our children remain safe and secure.

A Letter from the Pastor

Dear Parish Family,

Last week we had Catholic Schools Week. There were many varied activities showcasing the wonderful work of our students here at Our Lady Star of the Sea School. However, the icing on the cake was the wonderful surprise last Friday morning when the Parents Association of our school came and decorated the classroom doors of all our grades with a creative design honoring the staff and students. I was amazed at the artistry of these designs. Ideas ranged from fortune cookies, to balloons, F-R-I-E-N-D-S, coffee cups and mugs declaring "We love you A LATTE." This is just to name a few. As I wandered through the halls to see this spectacular scene, I met Mrs. Jeannine Roland, our principal, who was touring the school with a prospective Mom. I mentioned to her, "You chose a great day to visit us." This is a special place to be. I was equally surprised to see the 8th graders reading to a group of first graders in the D'Amato Room. I picked up from Mrs. Patti Gandelman, our assistant principal, that the parents came the evening before and did their decorating and this has had a profound effect on the teachers. Rightly so, they felt so uplifted and honored. The whole project couldn't have cost that much, but the impact went way beyond that. Kudos to our Parents Association. You can feel the love and dedication when you step into our school.

This weekend at all the Masses we welcome Father Henry Lozano, M. O. P., and a brother of the Missionaries of the Poor, who are stationed in Kingston, Jamaica. There are over 300 Brothers just in Jamaica alone, that come from Indonesia, India, Philippines, Kenya, Uganda, Belize, Haiti and Jamaica. They take a vow to serve the poorest of the poor in their shelters. Last year, sadly there was a fire in one of their shelters for homeless and challenged men. Similar to the terrible fire that occurred on Huguenot Avenue and Rensselaer Avenue, a fire had started down the block and travelled to their shelter. One poor man was killed by the fire and 69 others were displaced. You may remember how, two years ago, a group of singers accompanied Father and Brother for a musical concert at Our Lady Star of the Sea. They will be speaking about ways to help them in their mission. On March 10-16, there will be a group of 17 New Yorkers who will travel to Kingston, Jamaica and pray with the brothers and serve their residents. I will be joining them.

This past Monday evening I had the privilege to speak the parents of all our 2nd graders about First Holy Communion and their preparation for their children during the Month of May. The question often asked is, "How many classes can you miss and how many Masses can you miss and still make their First Holy Communion." The answer is an emphatic, "No". The third commandment states "Remember to keep holy the Sabbath". For us Catholics, Sunday is the Lord's Day, and we can't absent ourselves willfully due other scheduled events. Yes, there is reasonable reasons: sickness, or perhaps you are on a cruise and there is no priest available, or you are on a journey in your car and you can't find a church. There is an App called "Mass Times" that will point our times and surrounding Catholic Churches all across our country. Other than that, being busy is not acceptable. The children see and watch everything that we say and do. They will deeply rebel if parents don't go and yet you insist that they do. That's religious abuse. I appreciate the inconvenience and the struggles for rounding up everyone to come to Mass, but over Saturday and Sunday there are 7 opportunities to participate in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and receive Jesus in Word and Sacrament within a 27 hour period. We would never go 7 days without proper nourishment, laundry and clean clothes and proper hygiene. We need to feed our souls with the Bread of Life and not lead people into mortal sin.

There is a great movie based on the book of Bryan Stevenson called Just Mercy. I highly recommend it. It is about the recent past in the south and blacks who are innocent and incarcerated on death row. Another recommendation for the upcoming season of Lent is "Lenten Gospel Reflections" by Bishop Robert Barron and his team from Word on Fire. You can Google and order this simple paperback for your Lenten prayer time.

From March 16-19, Father Joseph Roesch, M.I.C. will conduct a parish mission from 7:30-9PM. The theme will focus on the Divine Mercy. Father Joe was ordained in our church some 27 years ago and is a Marian of the Immaculate Conception, now living in their Provincial House in Rome. Also, Project Hospitality will be hosting the St. Joseph's Feast event at Blessed Sacrament Parish on March 19 to honor the memory of Monsignor Vincent Bartley. Mass and dinner is at 5:30PM. For more information, please call the Blessed Sacrament Rectory.

I leave you with St. Brigid of Ireland's Blessing. Her feast day was February 1.

May no fire, no flame burn us. May no lake, no sea drown us. May no sword, no spear wound us. May no king, no chief insult us. May all the birds sing for us. May all the cattle low for us. May all the insects buzz for us.. May the angels of God always protect us. AMEN.

OLSS SCHOOL NEWS

• Report cards will be viewable to the parents on Wednesday, February 12 by the end of the school day. Parent/Teacher conferences will be held on Friday, February 14. Dismissal is at noon on the 14th.

• Good luck to the OLSS Varsity Cheer team who will be competing at Nationals in Orlando next week. We pray that they do their best and have a safe trip!

• The teachers of Our Lady Star of the Sea would like to send an enormous thank you to all those who took the time to make our Teachers Appreciation Day special. In the morning, imagine our delight to find each and every door uniquely decorated with so much love. Teachers and staff were roaming the halls with looks of astonishment on our faces, laughing and smiling at the beautiful and thoughtful gesture. And then, to be received with such a wonderful lunch, a bountiful dessert, and the generosity of all those gift baskets—it was overwhelming! Thank you so much to all who made this possible. It was a day we will always remember.
