A LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parish Family,

Welcome to Gaudete Sunday, Rejoicing Sunday. This is symbolized by the rose-colored vestments and the rose-colored candle lit on our Advent wreath. The rejoicing is because as we draw closer to Christmas and the birth of Jesus, He will ransom us, redeem us, and all the words of Sacred Scripture will become enlivened in this child born in Bethlehem. Here are some inspirational thoughts from Mother Teresa, Archbishop Fulton Sheen and Sara Young to help us during this Advent journey into peace.

From Mother Teresa - I can do things you cannot, and you can do things I cannot. Together we can do great things

From Sara Young's "Jesus Calling" paraphrasing Matthew 10: 29-31, Hebrews 11:27, and 2 Corinthians 4: 18, Philippians 4:19, and Colossians 2:2-3

I Am with you in all that you do, even in the most menial task. I am always aware of you, concerned with every detail of your life. Nothing escapes My notice- not even the number of hairs on your head. However, your awareness of my Presence falters and flickers; as a result, your life experience feels fragmented. When your focus is broad enough to include Me in your thoughts, you feel safe and complete. When your perception narrows so that problems or detail fill your consciousness, you feel empty and incomplete.

Learn to look steadily at Me in all your moments and all your circumstances. Though the world is unstable and in flux, you can experience continuity through your uninterrupted awareness of My Presence. Fix your gaze on what is unseen, even as the visible world parades before your eyes.

Your needs and my riches are a perfect fit. I never meant for you to be self-sufficient. Instead, I designed you to need Me not only for daily bread but also for the fulfillment of your deepest yearnings. I carefully crafted your longings and feelings of incompleteness to point you to Me. Therefore, do not try to bury or deny these feelings. Beware of also trying to pacify these longings with lesser gods: people, possessions, power.

Come to Me in all your neediness, with defenses down and with desire to be blessed. As you spend time in My Presence, your deepest longings are fulfilled. Rejoice in your neediness, which enables you to find intimate completion in Me.

Archbishop Fulton Sheen shared this story; I once was attending a man in a hospital. When I asked him to make his peace with God he said, "I suppose you're going to tell me I'm going to hell." "No", I said, "I'm not." "Well, he said, "I want to go to hell." I replied, I have never in my life met a man who wanted to go to hell, so I think I will just sit here and watch you go". Of course, I did not intend to let time pass without doing something, but I was absolutely sure, that if he had a few minutes to himself, he might change his point of view. So, I sat alone with him for twenty minutes. I could see him going through a soul struggle. Then he said to me, "You really believe there is a hell?" I asked him, "Do you feel unhappy on the inside? Are you fearful? Is there dread anxiety? Are all the evil things of your life coming up before you as a ghost?" Well, it wasn't long until he made his peace with God.

We will have our chance in a glorious way this Monday from 4-8PM. All three priests will be available in our church for Advent Reconciliation Monday. Even in these tough times we are here to give what the world cannot, the Peace and Mercy of forgiveness in the Sacrament of Confession. It's a powerful moment to let go and let God minister to us. So, make some time to come and join us. You will leave more free than when you entered the church.

This week we welcome home for the Christmas break Deacon Carmine Caruso. He will be leaving snowy Boston and colder temperatures for the clean streets of Staten Island. After this semester ends, he only has until May before his priesthood Ordination and he begins a whole new life of ministry. So welcome home Carmine.

Let us continue to pray for each other during this sacred season of Advent.

May this week of Advent help us grow in wisdom and grace as we prepare for the coming of Christ this Christmas.

Fr. Tom Devery

THIS WEEK'S READINGS AND RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

1st Reading:

The spirit of the Lord God is upon me, because the Lord has anointed me; he has sent me to bring glad tidings to the poor, to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives and release to the prisoners, to announce a year of favor from the Lord and a day of vindication by our God.

I rejoice heartily in the Lord, in my God is the joy of my soul; for he has clothed me with a robe of salvation and wrapped me in a mantle of justice, like a bridegroom adorned with a diadem, like a bride bedecked with her jewels. As the earth brings forth its plants, and a garden makes its growth spring up, so will the Lord God make justice and praise spring up before all the nations.

Responsorial Psalm:

R. My soul rejoices in my God.

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord;

My spirit rejoices in God my Savior, for he has looked upon his lowly servant. From this day all generations will call me blessed.

R. My soul rejoices in my God.

The Almighty has done great things for me, and holy is his Name.

He has mercy on those who fear him in every generation.

R. My soul rejoices in my God.

He has filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he has sent away empty.

He has come to the help of his servant Israel, for he has remembered his promise of mercy.

R. My soul rejoices in my God.

2nd Reading:

Brothers and sisters: Rejoice always. Pray without ceasing. In all circumstances give thanks, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus. Do not quench the Spirit. Do not despise prophetic utterances. Test everything; retain what is good. Refrain from every kind of evil.

May the God of peace make you perfectly holy and may you entirely, spirit, soul, and body, be preserved blameless for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. The one who calls you is faithful, and he will also accomplish it.

THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL

The Gospel

A man named John was sent from God. He came for testimony, to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but came to testify to the light.

And this is the testimony of John. When the Jews from Jerusalem sent priests and Levites to him to ask him, “Who are you?” he admitted and did not deny it, but admitted, “I am not the Christ.”

So they asked him, “What are you then? Are you Elijah?”

And he said, “I am not.”

“Are you the Prophet?”

He answered, “No.”

So they said to him, “Who are you, so we can give an answer to those who sent us? What do you have to say for yourself?”

He said: “I am the voice of one crying out in the desert, ‘Make straight the way of the Lord,’ as Isaiah the prophet said.”

Some Pharisees were also sent. They asked him, “Why then do you baptize if you are not the Christ or Elijah or the Prophet?”

John answered them, “I baptize with water; but there is one among you whom you do not recognize, the one who is coming after me, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to untie.”

This happened in Bethany across the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

THIS WEEK'S MUSIC

Entrance: O Come, O Come, Emmanuel

(R) Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel

Shall come to thee, O Israel!

1. O Come, Thou Key of David, come, And open wide our heavenly home; Make safe the way that leads on high, And close the path to misery.

2. O come, Thou Dayspring from on high

And cheer us by thy drawing nigh; Disperse the gloomy clouds of night, And death's dark shadow put to flight.

Preparation: People, Look East

1. People, look East. The time is near

Of the crowning of the year. Make your house fair as you are able. Trim the hearth and set the table. People, look East, and sing today: Love, the Guest, is on the way.

2. Furrows, be glad, though earth is bare.

One more seed is planted there; Give up your strength the seed to nourish, That in course the flower may flourish. People, look East, and sing today: Live, the Rose, is on the way.

3. Stars, keep the watch when night is dim.

One more light the bowl shall brim. Shining beyond the frosty weather, Bright as sun and moon together. People, look East, and sing today: Love, the Star, is on the way.

Communion #1: Your Light Will Come , Jerusalem

(R) Your light will come, Jerusalem; for on you will dawn the glory of the Lord, and all the nations will walk in your light, alleluia, alleluia.

1. Christ is the light of the world, a light dispelling the darkness. May we, his body, reflect that holy light.

2. His light is mercy and peace. A peace surpassing all telling. <sup>[OBJ]</sup> May we, his body, be instruments of peace.

3. His light is justice and truth, and love which casts out all hatred. May we, his body, prepare the reign of God.

Communion #2: Immanuel

(R) Immanuel, our God is with us. And if God is with us, who can stand against us? Our God is with us, Immanuel.

1. A sign shall be given, a virgin shall conceive, a human baby bearing undiminished Deity. The glory of the nations, a light for all to see; and hope for all who will embrace his warm reality.

Bridge: For all those who live in the shadow of death, a glorious light has dawned. For all those who stumble in the darkness, behold your light has come!

2. So what shall be your answer? Oh, will you hear the call of him who did not spare his son, but gave him for us all? On earth there is no power, there is no depth or height that could ever separate us from the love of God in Christ
