A LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parish Family,

During this season of Advent as we prepare for Christmas. We admit we need a Savior. Jesus came to save us from our sins. Jesus imparts to us grace. This is God's free gift of Himself into our lives, our way of living, thinking and behaving.

There is a Lutheran minister who lived and died in 1943 Germany, named Dietrich Bonhoeffer. He was a pastor, theologian, martyr and spy. He was once asked how is it possible for the Church to sit back and let Hitler seize absolute power. His firm answer: "It was the teaching of cheap grace." "Cheap grace is the forgiveness without requiring repentance, baptism without church discipline, communion without confession. Cheap grace is grace without discipleship, grace without the cross, grace without Jesus Christ.- Dietrich Bonhoeffer. Today we live in a time and culture that not only teaches cheap grace but praises it.

Beware of cheap grace. You are required to pay for food, clothing, and shelter here on earth. Likewise, do not be fooled into believing that "Getting into Heaven" is a free ride. Jesus paid the ultimate price and reduced your cost of salvation; but it is not cheap, and it may be free but it still requires hard and diligent work. That work is your gift and proof that you believe in the sanctifying grace of God.

An image that came out of a Zoom Bible Study last weekend was the fact that many of us seem to blow through Advent and not do the inner work of conversion and examination of conscience to determine, how and why I need a savior. Just what is my sin these days. It's not necessarily the sins of commission, but the sin of omission. What do I fail to do? Why do I need God's grace to reorientate my life so that I am not lost?

Taking the time to be alone and silent with God each day and enter into a quiet time of prayer, just listen, don't speak, don't read, just come before the Lord. He will lead.

In another prayer resource, "Jesus Calling", Sara Young's reflection for November 30th is inspirational. Problems are part of life. They are inescapable, woven into the very fabric of a fallen world. You tend to go into problem solving all too readily, acting as if you have the capacity to fix everything. This is a habitual response, so automatic that it bypasses your conscious thinking. Not only does this habit frustrate you, it also distances you from Me.

Do not let fixing things be your top priority. You are ever so limited in your capacity to correct all that is wrong in the world around you. Don't weight yourself down with responsibilities that are not your own. Instead, make your relationship with Me your primary concern. Talk with Me about whatever is on your mind, seeking my perspective on the situation. Rather than trying to fix everything that comes to your attention, ask Me to show you what is truly important. Remember that you are en route to heaven, and let your problems face in the light of Eternity.

Archbishop Fulton Sheen once said, "So the divine love is a sacrificial love. Love does not mean to have to own and to possess. It means to be had and to be owned and to be possessed. It is not a circle circumscribed by self; it is arms outstretched to embrace all humanity within its grasp. No other love is ever going to be a satisfying love. All that we ever get in this world anyway is just a fragment, a fraction of love. We can catch a spark; it is caught up from the great white flame of love which is God. That's all we ever get. And if, to remind us of another love, the spark is so bright, then what must be the flame? It is the cross; it's self-denial, it's victimhood, for this is the gospel of Christ, and we cannot soften him. He is the one who gave his life and that's the way he measures his love. Greater love than this no man has. When we stay close to that love, day and day, hour after hour, others begin to feel that love."

At the 11AM Mass this Sunday Father Basil Akut will celebrate his silver Jubilee, 25 years ago on December 9th, he became a priest. He has survived so much and continues to tell us through it all. God is good, all the time and all the time, God is good. Please remember him in your prayers. Thank you, Father Basil!

I hope these reflections will fire up your soul this Advent. God bless,

Father Tom Devery

THIS WEEK'S READINGS AND RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

1st Reading:

Comfort, give comfort to my people, says your God. Speak tenderly to Jerusalem, and proclaim to her that her service is at an end, her guilt is expiated; indeed, she has received from the hand of the Lord double for all her sins.

A voice cries out: In the desert prepare the way of the Lord! Make straight in the wasteland a highway for our God! Every valley shall be filled in, every mountain and hill shall be made low; the rugged land shall be made a plain, the rough country, a broad valley. Then the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all people shall see it together; for the mouth of the Lord has spoken. Go up onto a high mountain, Zion, herald of glad tidings; cry out at the top of your voice, Jerusalem, herald of good news! Fear not to cry out and say to the cities of Judah: Here is your God!

Here comes with power the Lord God, who rules by his strong arm; here is his reward with him, his recompense before him. Like a shepherd he feeds his flock; in his arms he gathers the lambs, carrying them in his bosom, and leading the ewes with care.

Responsorial Psalm:

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

I will hear what God proclaims;
the LORD—for he proclaims peace to his people.

Near indeed is his salvation to those who fear him,
glory dwelling in our land.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

Kindness and truth shall meet;
justice and peace shall kiss.

Truth shall spring out of the earth,
and justice shall look down from heaven.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

The LORD himself will give his benefits;
our land shall yield its increase.

Justice shall walk before him,
and prepare the way of his steps.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

2nd Reading:

Do not ignore this one fact, beloved, that with the Lord one day is like a thousand years and a thousand years like one day. The Lord does not delay his promise, as some regard “delay,” but he is patient with you, not wishing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance. But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then the heavens will pass away with a mighty roar and the elements will be dissolved by fire, and the earth and everything done on it will be found out.

Since everything is to be dissolved in this way, what sort of persons ought you to be, conducting yourselves in holiness and devotion, waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be dissolved in flames and the elements melted by fire. But according to his promise we await new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells. Therefore, beloved, since you await these things, be eager to be found without spot or blemish before him, at peace.

THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL

The Gospel

The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ the Son of God.

As it is written in Isaiah the prophet:

Behold, I am sending my messenger ahead of you;

he will prepare your way.

A voice of one crying out in the desert:

“Prepare the way of the Lord,

make straight his paths.”

John the Baptist appeared in the desert proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. People of the whole Judean countryside and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem were going out to him and were being baptized by him in the Jordan River as they acknowledged their sins. John was clothed in camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist. He fed on locusts and wild honey. And this is what he proclaimed:

“One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.”

THIS WEEK'S MUSIC

Entrance: O Come, O Come, Emmanuel

(R) Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel

Shall come to thee, O Israel!

1. O Come, O Come, Thou Lord of might,

Who to thy tribes on Sinai's height

In ancient times didst give the law,

In cloud and majesty and awe.

2. O come, Thou Rod of Jesse's stem,

From every foe deliver them

That trust thy mighty power to save,

And give them vict'ry o'er the grave.

Preparation: On Jordan's Bank

1. On Jordan's bank the Baptist's cry

Announces that the Lord is nigh;

Awake and hearken for he brings

Glad tidings of the King of Kings.

2. Then cleansed be every soul from sin;

Make straight the way of God within,

Prepare we in our hearts a home,

Where such a mighty guest may come.

3. For thou art our salvation Lord,

Our refuge and our sure reward;

Shine forth, and let thy light restore

Our souls to heavenly grace once more.

4. All praise, eternal Son, to thee

Whose advent set thy people free,

Whom with the Father we adore

And Holy Spirit evermore.

Communion #1: A Voice Cries Out

R. A voice cries out in the wilderness: "Prepare a way for the Lord!"

A voice cries out in the wilderness: "Make straight a highway for God!"

1. Console my people, the ones dear to me; speak to the heart of Jerusalem:

the time of your mourning is ended now, the Lord of life will come.

2. Every valley is made a plain, every mountain is leveled; the glory of God shall then be revealed, and the nations will sing in praise.

3. A voice shouts: "Cry!" O what shall I cry?

All flesh is like grass and it's flowers:
the grass may wither, the flowers fade,
but the Word if the Lord is forever.

4. Zion, shout from the mountain top, lift up your voice, O Jerusalem, and say to the people of God's own land, "Behold, behold your God"

Communion #2: Ready the Way

(R) Ready the way, ready the way, ready the way of the Lord.

Ready the way, ready the way, ready the way of the Lord.

1. Make straight the road, raise the valleys, and mountains make low.

Turning from sin, let the broken be whole, and ready the way of the Lord.

2. As we wait for you, give us the strength to walk in your truth, so we may love more like you and ready the way for you, Lord.

3. Let us see your face; in our hearts we prepare a place. Come bring this world your mercy and grace as we ready the way for you, Lord.
