A LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parish Family,

Once again Happy Easter! Abundant blessings be yours today on this the Feast of the Divine Mercy. It was exactly on this Feast 21 years ago I surrendered the usher's room and the room of reconciliation at Holy Child Church to become the Divine Mercy Chapel for Perpetual Adoration. Except for snowstorms and pandemic reasons 24/7 people have access to come into God's presence face to face for silent prayer and worship. Of all the projects and ministries that I have experienced in 43 years, I can say one of the greatest joys of my priesthood is watching how people who never dedicated one hour of adoration time signed up and I watched in amazement how our Blessed Lord was able to deepen their faith and growth in Christ. People gravitate there not because I asked them to but more importantly, they have seen for themselves what wonders are in store when we turn to Him. Through the years many have gone home to God and new people have taken their place. I wait for the day to see this room open again. All the more reason since we followed the lead of perpetual adoration from the Blessed Sacrament Chapel at Saint Paul's Center on the north shore.

This Feast of Divine Mercy comes directly from our Lord's vision to Saint Faustina of Krakow, Poland. Pope Saint John Paul the Great promoted Divine Mercy and the Marian Fathers of the Immaculate Conception have their national shrine dedicated to this Feast in Stockbridge, Massachusetts. Father Joseph Roesch, M.I.C., who was ordained in our parish is now on the general counsel of his order in Rome. IF we were to tune into EWTN on Divine Mercy Sunday at 3PM, Father Joseph would lead the congregation, hundreds of people, in this worship. The Lord told Saint Faustina that enormous graces would be poured out on souls who went to confession and recited at the three o'clock hour the Chaplet of Divine Mercy. This prayer is usually prayed on the rosary beads. It begins with the Apostles Creed, the Our Father, the Hail Mary, and then three times this prayer, "O blood and water, which gushed forth from the heart of Jesus as a fountain of mercy for us, I trust in you." Then on the Our Father bead, you pray, "Eternal Father. I offer you the body and blood, soul and divinity, of your dearly beloved son, in atonement for our sins and the sins of the whole world. Then on the Hail Mary beads we pray: "For the sake of His sorrowful passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world." The chaplet is concluded with this prayer said three times: "Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy and Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world."

Why is this grace so important? We need to atone for our sins, repent of them and worship the merciful heart of Jesus. This heart was pointed to by Jesus to Doubting Thomas on the week after the Resurrection. When Jesus heart was pierced, blood and water, the symbol for Baptism and Eucharist is depicted in Saint Faustina's image and rays of white and red light flowing from the heart of Christ. The world is reeling these days from suffering, pandemic fears, financial woes, addicted living situations and much brokenness and alienation from God. As Deacon Carmine Caruso mentioned in his Easter Monday homily this morning, "We have all contaminated the soil of our soul with pollution; that needs to be cleaned up, so we can restore the original innocence of our lives as creatures made in the image and likeness of God.

On Divine Mercy Sunday I will be joining brother priests at the three o'clock hour at Holy Child Church for the celebration of this feast where adoration, witnessing and confessions will be made available. Come and Join us.

A Blessed Easter to all of you. Thank you for all the prayers offered at this time for our parish.

May the Risen Lord Jesus give you His Peace.

Divine Mercy Sunday

This Sunday is Divine Mercy Sunday. It is the wonderful feast highlighted by Pope John Paul II's canonization of Saint Faustina. It was formerly called "Low Sunday" or the first Sunday after Easter. Divine Mercy is a reminder to us of the mystery of Christ's love for us at Calvary and how even despite Doubting Thomas' absence, Jesus not only appears to the apostles and disciples in the Upper Room on Easter Sunday Evening but shows them that He is Risen, indeed He is alive and that He has forgiven us of all our sins. Jesus conquered sin, suffering and death. He now invites us to love one another by being merciful and spreading this good news.

READINGS AND RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

First Reading

The community of believers was of one heart and mind, and no one claimed that any of his possessions was his own, but they had everything in common. With great power the apostles bore witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great favor was accorded them all. There was no needy person among them, for those who owned property of houses would sell them, bring the proceeds of the sale, and put them at the feet of the apostles, and they were distributed to each according to need.

Responsorial Psalm

R. Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; his love is everlasting.

Let the house of Israel say,
"His mercy endures forever."

Let the house of Aaron say,
"His mercy endures forever."

Let those who fear the Lord say,
"His mercy endures forever."

R. Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; his love is everlasting.

I was hard pressed and was falling,
but the Lord helped me.

My strength and my courage is the Lord,
and he has been my savior.

The joyful shout of victory in the tents of the just.

R. Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; his love is everlasting.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.

By the Lord has this been done.

It is wonderful in our eyes.

This is the day the Lord has made;
let us be glad and rejoice in it.

R. Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; his love is everlasting.

Second Reading

Beloved: Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is begotten by God, and everyone who loves the Father loves also the one begotten by him. In this way we know that we love the children of God when we love God and obey his commandments. For the love of God is this, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome, for whoever is begotten by God conquers the world. And the victory that conquers the world is our faith. Who indeed is the victor over the world but the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? This is the one who came through water and blood, Jesus Christ, not by water alone, but by water and blood. The Spirit is the one that testifies, and the Spirit is truth.

THE GOSPEL

On the evening of the first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

Now a week later his disciples were again inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed."

Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and through this belief you may have life in his name.

THIS WEEK'S MUSIC

Entrance: Ye Watchers and Ye Holy Ones

1. Ye watchers and ye holy ones,
Bright seraphs, cherubim, and thrones,
Raise the glad strain, Alleluia!
Cry out, dominions, principedoms , powers,
Virtues, arch angels, angels' choirs, Alleluia!
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!
2. Respond, ye souls in endless rest,
You patriarchs and prophets blest, Alleluia!
Ye holy Twelve, and martyrs strong,
All saints triumphant, raise the song, Alleluia!
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!
3. Oh friends, in gladness let us sing,
Triumphant anthems echoing, Alleluia!
To God the father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, Three in One, Alleluia!

Preparation: Ye Sons and Daughters

Refrain:

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

1. Ye sons and daughters, let us sing!
The King of heaven, the glorious King,
O'er death today rose triumphing. Alleluia!
2. That Easter morn, at break of day,
The faithful women went their way
To seek the tomb where Jesus lay. Alleluia!
3. An Angel clad in white they see,
Who sat, and spoke to the three,
"Your Lord has gone to Galilee." Alleluia!

Communion #1: The Supper of the Lord

Refrain:

Precious body, precious blood, seen as bread
and wine; here the Lord prepares the feast divine. Bread of love is broken now, cup of life is poured: come, share the supper of the Lord.

1. This is the bread of God coming down from heaven, giving life to us, to all the world.
2. " I am the living spring of eternal life; you that drink from me shall not thirst again."
3. " I am the bread of heaven giving life to you;
you that eat this bread shall never die."

Communion #2: We Are Many Parts

Refrain:

We are many parts, we are all one body, and the gifts we have we are given to share. May the Spirit of love make us one indeed; one, the love that we share, one our hope in despair,
one, the cross that we bear.

1. God of all, we look to you, we would be your servants true, let us be your love to all the world.
2. So my pain is pain for you, in your joy is my joy, too; all is brought together in the Lord.
3. All you seekers great and small, seek the greatest gift of all; if you love, then you will know the Lord.
