A LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parish Family,

Happy Mother's Day! I salute all the mothers, grandmothers, mothers in law, godmothers, spiritual mothers, single mothers and adopted mothers, who by their feminine genius reveal the face of God. Think for a moment of your mother's eyes. All those moments when she gave you the look. It could be one of loving pride, or "cut that out now" or complete exhaustion from working and caring for a member of the family. Think for a moment of a mother's heart that bears all the burdens of her families. All those times when the siblings are not getting along; all the worries of those times when someone is in trouble. The forgiving heart, the laughing heart, the consoling heart and the ever-ready loving heart, it is like no other love in the world.

My mom had a sharp wit, and a keen sense of character judgment and an irreducible call to humility that help me realize who I am and who I belong to. I seldom tell this tale of my first blessing. After ordination to priesthood, all the newly ordained men are led into Our Lady's Chapel in Saint Patrick's Cathedral and following last in the procession was Cardinal Terence Cooke. He knelt down before the altar there; and each of us newly ordained priest lay hands on his head; and pray our first priestly blessing over him. While this is going on, our parents are led into the chapel and it was an emotional moment for me to give my first priestly blessing to my parents. When I had finished praying; I leaned over to my mother and gave her a kiss and sweetly said into her ear. "Now, you can call me Father". She looked up and with a stage whisper said to me, "I call you crap, I took enough it from you". I was hysterical, "Ma, the cardinal could hear you". She said, "Don't pull that rank on me, round collar or not".

For thirty-seven years more I had the blessing of being a son, while she was still alive and no spiritual director could read me like her intuition. She could tell by my face what was going on. I knew that every day I was prayed for in her rosaries, her going to Mass and the loving kindness she displayed to her neighbors. She lived to be a great age, 95.

One of the greatest surprises in her life was when I was the director of the Parish Mission Team and in 1993 a busload of pilgrims arrived in the Holy Land for 10 days. Mom thoroughly enjoyed that experience as did I; but when we walked the Via Dolorosa, and prayed the Stations of the Cross at of the 14 stops. The last stop was "Jesus is taken down from the cross and place in his mother's arms". I had a part of the prayer to read; and Mom had a part. She told me that was one of the happiest days of her life.

Another amazing surprise came in 2012 on a steamy humid Sunday afternoon In August. It sadly happened that there was a number of Hispanic parishioners from Saint Mary of the Assumption Parish on the north shore were injured and killed. Cardinal Dolan went to be with them and afterward came to Monsignor Farrell High School residence to freshen up and have a bite to eat. I was in residence there at the time when I was working in the Office of Priest Personnel. Cardinal Dolan called me on my cell phone and asked if he could come and have a visit with mom who was living about a mile down the road in the Tysen's Apartments. "I said, come on over". Mom said, "Who's coming over?" I told her the Cardinal. She was completely taken by surprise. I was ordered to take out the vacuum, put on the kettle, straighten out the living room. In the midst of barking her orders at me, in he walked. He gave her a big hug and she was enthralled with the fact that he would visit her. They laughed and told many stories about Ireland and coming to America. and just as quickly as he came, he left. But at 93 years of age, it was a distinct honor. These cherished memories, and thousands more come to mind as I offer Mass this Sunday. May each of you be blessed in honoring your moms living and gone to God.

May is the month of Mary, let us honor her for giving us Jesus and may our lives be a Magnificat, "My soul magnifies the Lord; and my spirit rejoices in God my savior.

Happy Mother's Day

Father Tom

READINGS AND RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

First Reading

When Peter entered, Cornelius met him and, falling at his feet, paid him homage. Peter, however, raised him up, saying, "Get up. I myself am also a human being." Then Peter proceeded to speak and said, "In truth, I see that God shows no partiality. Rather, in every nation whoever fears him and acts uprightly is acceptable to him."

While Peter was still speaking these things, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who were listening to the word. The circumcised believers who had accompanied Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit should have been poured out on the Gentiles also, for they could hear them speaking in tongues and glorifying God. Then Peter responded, "Can anyone withhold the water for baptizing these people, who have received the Holy Spirit even as we have?" He ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ.

Responsorial Psalm

R. The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

Sing to the Lord a new song,
for he has done wondrous deeds;
His right hand has won victory for him,
his holy arm.

R. The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

The Lord has made his salvation known:
in the sight of the nations he has revealed his justice.

He has remembered his kindness and his faithfulness toward the house of Israel.

R. The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation by our God.

Sing joyfully to the Lord, all you lands;
break into song; sing praise.

R. The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

Second Reading

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is of God; everyone who loves is begotten by God and knows God. Whoever is without love does not know God, for God is love. In this way the love of God was revealed to us: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might have life through him. In this is love: not that we have loved God, but that he loves us and sent his Son as expiation for our sins.

THE GOSPEL

Jesus said to his disciples: “As the Father loves me, so I also love you. Remain in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father’s commandments and remain in his love. I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy might be complete. This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one’s life for one’s friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I no longer call you slaves, because a slave does not know what his master is doing. I have called you friends, because I have told you everything I have heard from my Father. It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you. This I command you: love one another.”

THIS WEEK'S MUSIC

Entrance: Alleluia! Sing to Jesus

1. Alleluia! Sing to Jesus!
His the scepter, his the throne;
Alleluia! His the triumph,
His the victory alone;
Hark! the songs of peaceful Zion
Thunder like a mighty flood;
Jesus out of every nation
Has redeemed us by his blood.

2. Alleluia! not as orphans
Are we left in sorrow now;
Alleluia! he is near us,
Faith believes, nor questions how:
Though the cloud from sight received him, When the forty days were over, Shall our hearts forget his promise?
"I am with you evermore!"

Preparation: Litany of Peace

1. God of love, your gift of peace is planted deep within our hearts:
Refrain:
Make me an instrument of your peace.
Make me an instrument of your peace.

2. God of peace, where ever there is hatred, may we bring your love:

3. May we bring your hope and gladness where despair
and sadness are:

4. May we seek to understand another with a patient
heart:

5. Faithful God, where ever there is darkness, may we bring your light:

Communion #1: We Are Many Parts

Refrain:

We are many parts, we are all one body, and the gifts
we have we are given to share.
May the Spirit of love make us one indeed; one, the love we share, one, our hope in despair, one, the cross that we bear.

1. God of all, we look to you, we would be your servants true, let us be your love to all the world.

2. So my pain is pain for you, in your joy is my joy, too;
all is brought together in the Lord.

3. All you seekers great and small, seek the greatest gift of all; if you love, then you will know the Lord.

Communion #2: O Breathe on Me, O Breath of God

1. O breathe on me, O breath of God,
Fill me with life I knew,
That I may love the things you love,
And do what you would do.

2. O breathe on me, O breath of God,
Until my heart is pure;
Until my will is one with yours,
To do and to endure.

3. O breathe on me, O breath of God,
My will to yours incline,
Until this selfish part of me
Glows with your fire divine.
