A LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parish Family,

The selection of reflections below come from two Franciscans: Saint Anthony of Padua and Father Richard Rohrer, OFM

Humility, poverty, patience, and obedience are the four who bring a soul, as it lies helpless, to Jesus. The roof is a four-fold one: of pride, avarice, stubbornness, and anger. Covering and obscuring the face of the soul so that it cannot see the light of justice, this roof is opened by the four virtues mentioned. Thus, they led down before Jesus, trusting in his mercy, both soul and body. No one can come to Jesus unless he is carried by these four virtues.

Note these three points: Jesus saw their faith, Courage, child, and your sins are forgiven. Faith without love is empty. A Christian's faith is with love. Take note, it is one thing to 'believe God, another to 'believe in God', and another to 'believe in God.

To believe God is to believe that what he says is true, which bad people may do. To believe in the second sense is to believe in his existence- that he is God – and the devils do this. To believe in God, is by believing, to love him, to go to him, to adhere to him and be incorporated into his members. Where there is this sort of faith, there is trust In God's mercy and remission of sin.

We ask you, then, Lord Jesus Christ, to put away the lying of our pride, to drive out our avarice by poverty, to break our anger with patience, and to crush our disobedience by the obedience of your Passion. By this may we be presented to you, receive the forgiveness of our sins, and be made fit to rejoice with you forever. Grant this, you who are blessed forever and ever. Amen

Beloved, let us ask our Lord Jesus Christ to make us rise for our sins, take up the bed of our flesh, and return to the house of heavenly blessedness. – Saint Anthony of Padua.

Much of the Bible is largely character development and transformation of persons and institutions. It usually begins with an experience of "election" or chosenness. There's no getting started, it seems, without somehow knowing oneself as special and empowered. Then the character—of people and groups—will indeed and always develop. We cannot begin the journey on a negative or problem-solving note like "sin management." It all begins with an experience of chosenness, just as in marriage and friendship.

Think of the many, many stories of God choosing people. There are Moses and Miriam, Abraham and Sarah; there is Deborah, David, Jeremiah, and Esther. There is Israel itself. Much later there's Peter, Paul, and most especially, Mary. God is always choosing concrete people. First impressions aside, God is not primarily choosing them for a role or a task, although it might appear that way. God is really choosing them to be and to image God in this world.

God needs images. God needs people to be willing instruments. It's essential, though, for God's instruments to know that they are not alone, that they are not just doing their own thing, but rather are doing God's thing. When God chooses someone in the Bible, the standard opening line is "Do not be afraid" (Genesis 15:1), and the final line usually includes the promise "I will be with you" (Exodus 3:12).

Being chosen doesn't mean that God likes one over another or finds some better than others. Almost always, in fact, those chosen are quite flawed or at least ordinary people. It is clear that their power is not their own. As Paul will put it, "If anyone wants to boast, they can only boast about the Lord" (1 Corinthians 1:31).

The paradox is that God's chosenness is for the sake of communicating chosenness to everybody else! As in the Jonah story, this often takes people a long time to learn. Here is the principle: We can only transform people to the degree that we have been transformed. We can only lead others as far as we ourselves have gone. We have no ability to affirm or to communicate to another person that they are good or special until we know it strongly ourselves. Once we get our own "narcissistic fix," as I call it, then we can stop worrying about being center stage. We then have plenty of time and energy to promote other people's empowerment and specialness. Only beloved people can pass on belovedness.

God bless you in your seeking and in His chosenness and belovedness for you.

Fr. Tom

READINGS AND RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

First Reading

Woe to the shepherds who mislead and scatter the flock of my pasture, says the Lord. Therefore, thus says the Lord, the God of Israel, against the shepherds who shepherd my people: You have scattered my sheep and driven them away. You have not cared for them, but I will take care to punish your evil deeds. I myself will gather the remnant of my flock from all the lands to which I have driven them and bring them back to their meadow; there they shall increase and multiply. I will appoint shepherds for them who will shepherd them so that they need no longer fear and tremble; and none shall be missing, says the Lord. Behold, the days are coming, says the Lord, when I will raise up a righteous shoot to David; as king he shall reign and govern wisely, he shall do what is just and right in the land. In his days Judah shall be saved, Israel shall dwell in security. This is the name they give him: "The Lord our justice."

Responsorial Psalm

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
In verdant pastures he gives me repose;
beside restful waters he leads me;
he refreshes my soul.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

He guides me in right paths
for his name's sake.
Even though I walk in the dark valley
I fear no evil; for you are at my side with your rod and your staff
that give me courage.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

You spread the table before me
in the sight of my foes;
you anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Only goodness and kindness follow me
all the days of my life;
and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord
for years to come.

Second Reading

Brothers and sisters: In Christ Jesus you who were once far off have become near by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace, he who made both one and broke down the dividing wall of enmity, through his flesh, abolishing the law with its commandments and legal claims, that he might create in himself one new person in place of the two, thus establishing peace, and might reconcile both with God, in one body, through the cross, putting that enmity to death by it. He came and preached peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near, for through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father.

THE GOSPEL

The apostles gathered together with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught. He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." People were coming and going in great numbers, and they had no opportunity even to eat. So they went off in the boat by themselves to a deserted place. People saw them leaving and many came to know about it. They hastened there on foot from all the towns and arrived at the place before them. When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved by great pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd and he began to teach them many things.

THIS WEEK'S MUSIC

Entrance: Gather Your People

Refrain:

Gather your people, O Lord.

Gather your people, O Lord.

One bread, one body, one spirit of love.

Gather people, O Lord.

1. Draw us forth to the table of life: brothers and sisters, each of us called to walk in your light.
2. We are parts of the body of Christ, needing each other, each of the gifts the Spirit provides.

Preparation: Sacred Silence

Refrain:

Sacred silence, holy ocean, gentle water, washing over me; help me listen, Holy Spirit. Come and speak to me.

1. God my father, Christ my brother, Holy Spirit, sanctifying me; Lord, I'm sorry, please forgive me. Come and set me free.
2. Holy Mary, gentle mother, God's pure vessel, praying for me; saints and angels, all in heaven, come and be with me.

Communion #1: Shepherd Me, O God

Refrain:

Shepherd me, O God, beyond my wants, beyond my fears, from death into life.

1. God is my shepherd, so nothing shall I want, I rest in the meadows of faithfulness and love, I walk by the quiet waters of peace.
2. Gently you raise me and heal my weary soul, you lead me by pathways of righteousness and truth, my spirit shall sing the music of your Name.
3. Though I should wander the valley of death, I fear no evil, for you are at my side, your rod and your staff, my comfort and my hope.

Recessional: Lead Me, Lord

1. Blessed are the poor in spirit, longing for their Lord, for God's coming kingdom shall be theirs. Blessed are the sorrowing, for they shall be consoled, and the meek shall come to rule the world.

Refrain:

Lead me, Lord, lead me, Lord, by the light of truth to seek and to find the narrow way. Be my way; be my truth; be my life, my Lord, and lead me, Lord, today.

2. Blessed are the merciful, for mercy shall be theirs, and the pure in the heart shall see their God. Blest are they whose hunger only holiness can fill, for I say they shall be satisfied.
